GENERAL STATEMENT

THE CINCINNATI COLLEGE

The Lancaster Seminary of Cincinnati was incorporated February 4, 1815, as the result of a movement started a year earlier. School lots at Fourth and Walnut streets were leased and a building erected thereon, which was opened for school purposes in the spring of 1815. This institution soon developed into the Cincinnati College, incorporated January 22, 1819, under the name of "The President, Trustees and Faculty of the Cincinnati College," with power to erect and maintain a college, and to confer all or any of the degrees that are usually conferred in any college or university within the United States. All powers and funds of the Lancaster Seminary were conferred upon the college. (17 Ohio Laws, pp. 46-50, reprinted in 52 Ohio State Reports, 375.)

THE LAW SCHOOL OF THE CINCINNATI COLLEGE

The Cincinnati Law School was founded in May, 1833, by John C. Wright, Timothy Walker, and Edward King. The first term of this, the first law school established west of the Allegheny Mountains, began October 8, 1833, with seventeen students.

In 1835 the school was incorporated with the Cincinnati College, and from that time it was conducted under the name of the "Law School of the Cincinnati College." It is today the only department of the old Cincinnati College that has survived. The quarters of the school were for many years in the College Building on Walnut street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, on the site of the old Lancaster Seminary, of which it is the direct and sole successor.

In 1918 the Law School of the Cincinnati College became a part of the University of Cincinnati as the College of Law, under which name it is now conducted.

ENDOWMENT

The college has a substantial endowment including, among others, the funds of the Rufus King Chair of Constitutional Law created by the will of Rufus King, a professor in the school from 1875 to 1891, and of the G. H. Wald Professorship of the Law of Contracts created by Mrs. Betty Wald and Richard H. Wald in memory of Gustavus Henry Wald, a member of the faculty of the school from 1896 to 1903.

BUILDING AND EQUIPMENT

The college owns its present home, the handsome and thoroughly equipped building, on Ninth street, near Race street, in the heart of the city. The building, planned especially for law school purposes, was erected in 1902.

The law library and the stack room are located on the first floor. On the same floor is the large reading room, well furnished with chairs, reading and writing tables, with a capacity for seating three hundred persons. This room is so arranged that it can be used as an audience room for general meetings of the school, or for special occasions requiring a large hall.

On the floor above are the professors' rooms and three large lecture rooms, well lighted and ventilated.

There are also club and fraternity rooms, with chairs, tables, and lockers, for the convenience and accommodation of the students.

The library contains over thirteen thousand volumes, including all of the leading English and American reports, digests, encyclopaedias, textbooks, and periodicals.

Donations of books to the library have been made during the past year by Messrs. Paxton, Warrington and Seasongood, and by Mr. Buchanan Perin.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The College of Law is the home of the Hamilton Chapter of the legal fraternity of Phi Delta Phi. In addition to social features, it is the object of this fraternity to supplement by lectures and quiz classes the classroom work.

The Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity is represented at the school by Chase Chapter. The purpose of this fraternity is mutual helpfulness among the members and the upholding of a high standard of scholarship. Quiz classes and reviews are conducted throughout the school year.

The Law School Club is an organization in which all students are eligible to membership. Its purpose is to promote student activities and to further the spirit of good fellowship. Well equipped rooms in the school building are furnished the club. This student organization attends to all debating, including debates with other law schools.

All students of the College of Law are students of the University of Cincinnati, and, if otherwise qualified, are entitled to participate in the student life and all activities of the University.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Charles Wilby.....President
709 Fourth National Bank Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio
Otis FiskSecretary-Treasurer
714 Mercantile Library Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio

The next meeting of the association will be held on Monday, September 22, 1919, at 8 p. m., at the college building.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

REGULAR STUDENTS

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Law, at the time of entering the college, must present a certificate showing that they have taken at least one year's work in a college of liberal arts and sciences at some approved university.

Students will be given credit for work done in approved law schools upon presentation of a certificate showing that they have taken such work and successfully passed examination therein in said law schools.

SPECIAL AND IRREGULAR STUDENTS

Special students are those who are not candidates for a degree. Irregular students are those who attend only part of the lectures and recitations of the College of Law. Those who desire to attend only at part of the lectures may do so upon giving satisfactory evidence of their fitness for such course of study, and upon payment of such a proportionate part of the regular tuition fee as may be fixed by the Dean. Special or irregular students may be admitted by the faculty to any class as regular students, upon complying with all the requirements of the college provided for admission to the class which they seek to enter.

TUITION

The charge for tuition is $60 a year, the first half payable upon registration, the second half at the beginning of the second term.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

The faculty have established a scholarship to be awarded to a student, selected by the faculty, who has completed the course of study prescribed for the second-year class.

Mr. Richard H. Wald will give each year, so long as he lives, a scholarship to be awarded to the student making the best record in the subject of contracts.

A prize of $75 will be awarded to the student having the highest average of credits during the three years' course.

A prize of $50 will be awarded to the student having the next highest average of credits during the three years' course.

By his will, the late Hon. John R. Sayler left to the college a fund, out of the proceeds of which a prize of $50 for the best essay on the subject of bills and notes, and another prize of $50 for the best essay on the subject of evidence are to be awarded each year.

The late Commander George Wood Logan, U. S. N., gave a fund of about $4,000 to establish a scholarship to be known as "The Thomas A. Logan Scholarship," in memory of his father, Thomas A. Logan, a graduate of the class of 1851, and for many years a member of the Cincinnati bar. The income arising from this gift is to be applied to the tuition, including the use of the necessary books, of students selected under regulations prescribed by the faculty.

EXAMINATIONS

The annual examinations of each class are held in May. The right to take examinations, as well as the privilege of continuing one's membership in the school at any time, is conditioned upon regular attendance at the exercises of the school, and conduct satisfactory to the faculty.

No student shall be regarded as having finally completed the work of the year unless he shall have obtained a general average in all courses of 70 per cent., and a grade of 60 per cent. in each of them.

CONDITIONS

If a student falls below 60 per cent. in not more than four courses and still has a general average of more than 70 per cent., he may take another examination in those subjects wherein he has failed.

No one can be admitted as a regular student to the third-year class who has any conditions standing against him.

REGULAR PROGRAM OF THE COURSE IN LAW

The degree of Bachelor of Laws will be given to students who have completed the prescribed course of three years, have passed satisfactorily the final examinations, and may be otherwise qualified. Degrees will be granted only to regular students.

Regular students must take all subjects prescribed and will be admitted to the following year's class only upon passing the required examinations.

The Lancaster Seminary of Cincinnati was incorporated February 4, 1815, as the result of a movement started a year earlier. School lots at Fourth and Walnut streets were leased and a building erected thereon, which was opened for school purposes in the spring of 1815. This institution soon developed into the Cincinnati College, incorporated January 22, 1819, under the name of "The President, Trustees and Faculty of the Cincinnati College," with power to erect and maintain a college, and to confer all or any of the degrees that are usually conferred in any college or university within the United States. All powers and funds of the Lancaster Seminary were conferred upon the college. (17 Ohio Laws, pp. 46-50, reprinted in 52 Ohio State Reports, 375.)

THE LAW SCHOOL OF THE CINCINNATI COLLEGE

The Cincinnati Law School was founded in May, 1833, by John C. Wright, Timothy Walker, and Edward King. The first term of this, the first law school established west of the Allegheny Mountains, began October 8, 1833, with seventeen students.

In 1835 the school was incorporated with the Cincinnati College, and from that time it was conducted under the name of the "Law School of the Cincinnati College." It is today the only department of the old Cincinnati College that has survived. The quarters of the school were for many years in the College Building on Walnut street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, on the site of the old Lancaster Seminary, of which it is the direct and sole successor.

In 1918 the Law School of the Cincinnati College became a part of the University of Cincinnati as the College of Law, under which name it is now conducted.

ENDOWMENT

The college has a substantial endowment including, among others, the funds of the Rufus King Chair of Constitutional Law created by the will of Rufus King, a professor in the school from 1875 to 1891, and of the G. H. Wald Professorship of the Law of Contracts created by Mrs. Betty Wald and Richard H. Wald in memory of Gustavus Henry Wald, a member of the faculty of the school from 1896 to 1903.

BUILDING AND EQUIPMENT

The college owns its present home, the handsome and thoroughly equipped building, on Ninth street, near Race street, in the heart of the city. The building, planned especially for law school purposes, was erected in 1902.

The law library and the stack room are located on the first floor. On the same floor is the large reading room, well furnished with chairs and reading and writing tables, with a capacity for seating three hundred persons. This room is so arranged that it can be used as an audience room for general meetings of the school, or for special occasions requiring a large hall.

On the floor above are the professors' rooms and three large lecture rooms, well lighted and ventilated.

There are also club and fraternity rooms, with chairs, tables, and lockers, for the convenience and accommodation of the students.

The library contains over fourteen thousand volumes, including all of the leading English and American reports, digests, encyclopaedias, textbooks, and periodicals.

Donations of books to the library have been made during the past year by Mrs. Joseph B. Foraker.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The College of Law is the home of the Hamilton Chapter of the legal fraternity of Phi Delta Phi. In addition to social features, it is the object of this fraternity to supplement by lectures and quiz classes the classroom work.

The Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity is represented at the school by Chase Chapter. The purpose of this fraternity is mutual helpfulness among the members and the upholding of a high standard of scholarship. Quiz classes and reviews are conducted throughout the school year.

The Law School Club is an organization in which all students are eligible to membership. Its purpose is to promote student activities and to further the spirit of good fellowship. Well equipped rooms in the school building are furnished the club. This student organization attends to all debating, including debates with other law schools.

The Calesidoc, to which men and women are eligible, meets every two weeks on Sunday afternoons to discuss legal problems, prepare for quizzes, or hear an address by some prominent person.

All students of the College of Law are students of the University of Cincinnati, and, if otherwise qualified, are entitled to participate in the student life and all activities of the University.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

Students of the College of Law are eligible to enter the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the University of Cincinnati.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association is composed of graduates of the Cincinnati Law School. The present officers are:

Charles Wilby	President
709 Fourth National Bank Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio
Otis Fisk	Secretary-Treasurer
714 Mercantile Library Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

REGULAR STUDENTS

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must be graduates of an approved four-year high school and have taken at least one year's work in a college of liberal arts and sciences at some approved university. Before registering they must forward their credentials showing the above credits.

SPECIAL AND IRREGULAR STUDENTS

Special students are those who are not candidates for a degree. Irregular students are those who attend only part of the lectures and recitations of the College of Law. Those who desire to attend only at part of the lectures may do so upon giving satisfactory evidence of their fitness for such course of study.

ADVANCED STANDING

Students will be given credit for work done in approved law schools upon presentation of a certificate showing that they have taken such work and successfully passed examination therein in said law schools.

FEES

All tuition fees required from students must be paid in advance and as a condition of registration. Registration shall not be considered as completed until all such payments have been made. If tuition fees are not paid promptly, students will not be permitted to attend classes.

Tuition fees are not returnable except when withdrawal from the University is caused by sickness or causes entirely beyond the control of the student. Students withdrawing under discipline forfeit all rights to a return of any portion of their fees.

Refunders, when allowed, shall be in the following proportions:

During 1st and 2d weeks	80%
" 3d and 4th "	60%
" 5th and 6th "	40%
" 7th and 8th "	20%

After the eighth week no refunder shall be allowed, but a credit memorandum may be issued for the total amount of the tuition.

Hours of instruction, case books used, subjects taught, charges for tuition, requirements for admission, graduation, degrees, and other like matters are subject to change at the discretion of the faculty, but there will be no change in charges for tuition, or any other charge, during the year for which a student has registered.

TUITION FEES

REGULAR STUDENTS

The charge for tuition for regular students is $100 a year, the first half payable upon registration, the second half at the beginning of the second term.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

The tuition fee per annum to special students is $15 for a one-hour course; $25 for a two-hour course; $30 for a three-hour course.

SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS

If the enrollment justifies it, summer courses will be offered. The tuition fee will be $15 for a one-hour course; $25 for a two-hour course; $30 for a three-hour course.

COMBINATION COURSES

In the combined arts and legal course of six years the student must pay tuition to the College of Law at the rate of $100 a year for three years; but he need not pay tuition for studies pursued in the College of Liberal Arts, provided he be a citizen of Cincinnati. If a non-resident, he must pay tuition in the College of Liberal Arts at the rate of $5 per credit hour, or a maximum of $50 per semester.

A regular student in the College of Law pursuing other than the six-year combined arts and legal course, and electing work in the College of Liberal Arts, must pay tuition in the College of Liberal Arts at the rate of $3 per semester hour, if he be a citizen of Cincinnati; and $5, if a non-resident.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

The faculty have established a scholarship to be awarded to a student, selected by the faculty, who has completed the course of study prescribed for the second-year class.

Mr. Richard H. Wald will give each year, so long as he lives, a scholarship to be awarded to the student making the best record in the subject of Contracts.

A prize of $75 will be awarded to the student having the highest average of credits during the three years' course.

A prize of $50 will be awarded to the student having the next highest average of credits during the three years' course.

By his will, the late Hon. John R. Sayler left to the college a fund, out of the proceeds of which a prize of $50 for the best essay on the subject of Bills and Notes, and another prize of $50 for the best essay on the subject of Evidence are to be awarded each year.

The late Commander George Wood Logan, U. S. N., gave a fund of about $4,000 to establish a scholarship to be known as "The Thomas A. Logan Scholarship," in memory of his father, Thomas A. Logan, a graduate of the class of 1851, and for many years a member of the Cincinnati bar. The income arising from this gift is to be applied to the tuition, including the use of the necessary books, of students selected under regulations prescribed by the faculty.

EXAMINATIONS

The annual examinations of each class are held in May. The right to take examinations, as well as the privilege of continuing one's membership in the school at any time, is conditioned upon regular attendance at the exercises of the school, and conduct satisfactory to the faculty.

No student shall be regarded as having finally completed the work of the year unless he shall have obtained a general average in all courses of 70 percent, and a grade of 60 percent in each of them.

Each student in order to pass from a lower to a higher class or to be graduated must not only pass the examinations satisfactorily, but must also satisfy the faculty by his work in the classroom that he should so pass from a lower to a higher class or be graduated.

CONDITIONS

If a student falls below 60 percent in not more than four courses and still has a general average of more than 70 percent, he may take another examination in those subjects wherein he has failed.

No one can be admitted as a regular student to the third-year class who has any conditions standing against him.

CONVOCATION

A general meeting of all the students will be held in the study hall on the second Thursday of each month.

Announcements of general interest to the school will be made, and matters affecting the school in general will be brought to the attention of the students at this meeting.

REGULAR PROGRAM OF THE COURSE IN LAW

The degree of Bachelor of Laws will be given to students who have completed the prescribed course of three years, have passed satisfactorily the final examinations, and may be otherwise qualified. Degrees will be granted only to regular students.

Regular students must take all subjects prescribed and will be admitted to the following year's class only upon passing the required examinations.

No certificate of credits will be given to any student who has not completed the full three-year course, unless the student is entering another law school in the Association of American Law Schools, in which case the certificate will be sent direct to the school which he expects to enter.

THE CINCINNATI COLLEGE

The Lancaster Seminary of Cincinnati was incorporated February 4, 1815, as the result of a movement started a year earlier. School lots at Fourth and Walnut Streets were leased and a building erected thereon, which was opened for school purposes in the spring of 1815. This institution soon developed into the Cincinnati College, incorporated January 22, 1819, under the name of "The President, Trustees and Faculty of the Cincinnati College," with power to erect and maintain a college, and to confer all or any of the degrees that are usually conferred in any college or university within the United States. All powers and funds of the Lancaster Seminary were conferred upon the college. (17 Ohio Laws, pp. 46-50, reprinted in 52 Ohio State Reports, 375.)

THE LAW SCHOOL OF THE CINCINNATI COLLEGE

The Cincinnati Law School was founded in May, 1833, by John C. Wright, Timothy Walker, and Edward King. The first term of this, the first law school established west of the Allegheny Mountains, began October 8, 1833, with seventeen students.

In 1835 the school was incorporated with the Cincinnati College, and from that time it was conducted under the name of the "Law School of the Cincinnati College." It is today the only department of the old Cincinnati College that has survived. The quarters of the school were for many years in the College Building on Walnut Street, between Fourth and Fifth Streets, on the site of the old Lancaster Seminary, of which it is the direct and sole successor.

In 1918 the Law School of the Cincinnati College became a part of the University of Cincinnati as the College of Law, under which name it is now conducted.

ENDOWMENT

The college has a substantial endowment including, among others, the funds of the Rufus King Chair of Constitutional Law created by the will of Rufus King, a professor in the school from 1875 to 1891, and of the G. H. Wald Professorship of the Law of Contracts created by Mrs. Betty Wald and Richard H. Wald in memory of Gustavus Henry Wald, a member of the faculty of the school from 1896 to 1903.

BUILDING AND EQUIPMENT

The College of Law has recently been removed from its former location, 21 West Ninth Street, and, pending the erection of a permanent law school building on the University grounds, Burnet Woods, occupies the building formerly used by the College of Medicine, situated on Clifton Avenue, two squares west of Vine Street. This building has been remodeled and fitted for use as a law school, with spacious classrooms and large library and reading rooms, together with offices and other necessary apartments. It was originally erected for use as the main building of the University of Cincinnati, and is pleasantly located, readily accessible by street car, and within fifteen minutes' ride of the center of the city.

The library contains over fourteen thousand volumes, including all of the leading English and American reports, digests, encyclopaedias, textbooks, and periodicals.

Donations of books to the library have been made during the past year by Rufus B. Hall, Jr. and Thorne Baker.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The College of Law is the home of the Hamilton Chapter of the legal fraternity of Phi Delta Phi. In addition to social features, it is the object of this fraternity to supplement by lectures and quiz classes the classroom work.

The Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity is represented at the school by Chase Chapter. The purpose of this fraternity is mutual helpfulness among the members and the upholding of a high standard of scholarship. Quiz classes and reviews are conducted throughout the school year.

The Law School Club is an organization in which all students are eligible to membership. Its purpose is to promote student activities and to further the spirit of good fellowship. This student organization attends to all debating, including debates with other law schools.

The Calesidoc, to which men and women are eligible, meets every two weeks on Sunday afternoons to discuss legal problems, prepare for quizzes, or hear an address by some prominent person.

All students of the College of Law are students of the University of Cincinnati, and, if otherwise qualified, are entitled to participate in the student life and all activities of the University.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

Students of the College of Law are eligible to enter the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the University of Cincinnati.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association is composed of graduates of the Cincinnati Law School. The present officers are:

Charles Wilby	President
709 Fourth National Bank Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio
Otis Fisk	Secretary-Treasurer
714 Mercantile Library Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

REGULAR STUDENTS

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must be graduates of an approved four-year high school and have taken at least one year's work (30 credits or the equivalent) in a college of liberal arts and sciences at some approved university. Before registering they must forward their credentials showing the above credits.

SPECIAL AND IRREGULAR STUDENTS

Special students are those who are not qualified to enter as regular students, but who desire to take some or all of the courses of study.

Irregular students are those who are qualified to enter as regular students, but who attend only part of the lectures and recitations.

Special and irregular students are accepted only under special circumstances and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Dean and faculty, and no certificates are given them unless specially ordered by the Dean and faculty.

ADVANCED STANDING

A student may be given credit for work done in an approved law school upon presentation of a certificate showing that he has taken such work and successfully passed examination therein in said school.

FEES

Tuition fees must be paid in advance and as a condition of registration. Registration shall not be considered as completed until all such payments have been made. If tuition fees are not paid promptly, students will not be permitted to attend classes.

Tuition fees are not returnable except when withdrawal from the University is caused by sickness or causes entirely beyond the control of the student. Before application for refund will be considered, it is necessary that a student shall have submitted to the Registrar notice of his withdrawal at the date of such withdrawal. Students withdrawing under discipline forfeit all rights to a return of any portion of their fees.

Refunds, when allowed, shall be in the following proportions:

During 1st and 2d weeks	80%
“ 3d and 4th “	60%
“ 5th and 6th “	40%
“ 7th and 8th “	20%

After the eighth week no refund shall be allowed, but a credit memorandum may be issued for the total amount of the tuition.

Hours of instruction, case books used, subjects taught, charges for tuition, requirements for admission, graduation, degrees, and other like matters are subject to change at the discretion of the Dean and faculty, but there will be no change in charges for tuition, or any other charge, during the year for which a student has registered.

TUITION FEES

REGULAR STUDENTS

The charge for tuition for regular students is $150 a year, the first half payable upon registration, the second half at the beginning of the second term.

SPECIAL AND IRREGULAR STUDENTS

The tuition fee a year for special and irregular students is $20 for a one-hour course; $30 for a two-hour course; $40 for a three-hour course; $50 for a four-hour course; and $75 for a five or six-hour course.

SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS

Whenever the enrollment justifies it, summer courses will be offered. The tuition fee will be $20 for a one-hour course; $30 for a two-hour course; $40 for a three-hour course; $50 for a four-hour course.

No summer student will be allowed to take more than four hours.

COMBINATION COURSES

In the combined arts and legal course of six years the student must pay tuition to the College of Law at the rate of $150 a year for three years; but he need not pay tuition for studies pursued in the College of Liberal Arts, provided he be a citizen of Cincinnati. If he is not a citizen, he must pay tuition in the College of Liberal Arts at the rate of $7.50 a credit hour, or a maximum of $75 a semester.

A regular student in the College of Law pursuing other than the six-year combined arts and legal course, and electing work in the College of Liberal Arts, must pay tuition in the College of Liberal Arts at the rate of $3 a semester hour, if he be a citizen of Cincinnati; and $7.50, if not a citizen.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

The faculty have established a scholarship to be awarded to a student, selected by the faculty, who has completed the course of study prescribed for the second-year class.

Mr. Richard H. Wald will give each year, so long as he lives, a scholarship to be awarded to the student making the best record in the subject of Contracts.

A prize of $50 is awarded to the student having the next highest average of credits during the three years' course.

By his will, the late Hon. John R. Sayler left to the college a fund, out of the proceeds of which a prize of $50 for the best essay on the subject of Bills and Notes, and another prize of $50 for the best essay on the subject of Evidence are to be awarded each year. If in any contest the judges find no manuscript of sufficient merit, there shall be no award of that prize for that year.

The late Commander George Wood Logan, U. S. N., gave a fund of about $4,000 to establish a scholarship to be known as "The Thomas A. Logan Scholarship," in memory of his father, Thomas A. Logan, a graduate of the class of 1851, and for many years a member of the Cincinnati bar. The income arising from this gift is to be applied to the tuition, including the use of the necessary books, of students selected under regulations prescribed by the faculty.

EXAMINATIONS

The annual examinations of each class are held in May. No student is regarded as having finally completed the work of the year unless he has obtained a general average in all courses of 70 percent, and a grade of at least 60 percent in each of them.

In order to pass from a lower to a higher grade or to be graduated, a student not only must have passed the examinations satisfactorily, but must have regularly attended classes and have satisfied the faculty by his work in the classroom that he should so pass or be graduated.

CONDITIONS

A student who has fallen below 60 percent in not more than four courses and still has a general average of more than 70 percent may, with the permission of the Dean and faculty, take another examination in those subjects in which he has failed.

No one can be admitted as a regular student to the third-year class who has any conditions standing against him.

The right to take examinations, as well as the privilege of continuing one's membership in the school at any time, is conditioned upon regular attendance at the exercises of the school, and conduct satisfactory to the faculty.

REQUIRED WITHDRAWALS

The right is reserved to require the withdrawal, at any time, of any student for frequent unexcused absences from class, or for continued neglect of required duties; or when, in the opinion of the Dean and faculty, the interest of the student or the school requires the student's withdrawal.

MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF OUTSIDE STUDY

A student who is a candidate for the degree of LL.B. is not permitted to take more than four hours a week in any other school or college, and then only by permission of the Dean and faculty.

CONVOCATION

A general meeting of all the students is held in the study hall from time to time.

Announcements of general interest to the school are made, and matters affecting the school in general are brought to the attention of the students at this meeting.

REGULAR PROGRAM OF THE COURSE IN LAW

The degree of Bachelor of Laws is given to students who have completed the prescribed course of three years, have passed satisfactorily the final examinations, and may be otherwise qualified. Degrees are granted only to regular students.

Regular students must take all subjects prescribed and are admitted to the following year's class only upon passing the required examinations.

No certificate of credits is given to any student who has not completed the full three-year course, unless the student is entering another law school in the Association of American Law Schools, in which case the certificate is sent directly to the school which he expects to enter.

PRE-LEGAL PROGRAM IN THE McMICKEN COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Students in the College of Liberal Arts of the University of Cincinnati, as a preliminary to entering the College of Law, must take the following courses:

SIX-YEAR COMBINED LIBERAL ARTS AND LEGAL PROGRAM

A student who has received credit for the work of the first two years in the College of Liberal Arts may, in the third year, elect from four to six hours a semester of the lectures of the first year of the law course as a substitute for studies in the College of Liberal Arts, and in the following year he may, in the same way, take the remainder of the thirteen hours of the first year's course in the College of Law. Upon passing the required examinations he is given the degree of A.B. Or, if he so desire, he may elect, in his Senior year, the entire thirteen hours of the first-year law course, in which event he is given the degree of A.B. upon passing the prescribed examinations at the College of Law.
